Big Real Estate Deal Means Much to the City.

Saturday afternoon witnessed the consummation of a real estate deal that means much for the future to the business section of the city.

The Akron Realty company has purchased the Howard property at the corner of High and Mill sts., and already plans are being prepared for the improvement of the property. The land is located on the southwest corner and has a frontage of 120 feet on High and Mill sts., alike. The deal has been on for some time, and was finally closed by Mr. H. T. Willson, counsel and Mr. W. W. McIntosh, secretary of the Akron Realty company, and attorney C. S. Cobbs representing the 21 heirs of the estate. The purchase price was $11,000.

While the new owners of the property are somewhat reticent about discussing the future intentions of the company it was learned upon the best authority Monday, that either a new Opera House or an European Hotel will be erected upon the site that the company is carefully considering the advisability of such an investment is a foregone conclusion. Plans and estimates are being prepared and before many months pass work will begin upon the improvement.

The only building upon the property at present is a two story brick, occupied as a livery stable by Mr. Edward W. Cubbison. It is understood that Mr. Cubbison is prepared to vacate upon short notice, and as soon as the company decides definitely, a large block will be erected.

BURGLARS

Visited Kaufmann Bros. Drug Store Sunday Morning.

At an early hour Sunday morning the drug store of Kaufmann Bros., opposite the City Building, was entered by burglars, and money to the amount of $6.25 stolen.

Entrance to the store was gained by raising a window, in the side of the building next the viaduct. The window was raised by means of an article apparently similar to a crowbar. The money taken was change in the cash register. No goods were stolen.

GEN. JOHN PIERCE.

Death in Denver of Former Hudson Man.

The Denver, Col., papers announce the death in that city on Saturday last of Gen. John Pierce, who was one of the early pioneers of that city and was one of its most prominent and influential citizens. He was a son of Rev. Geo. E. Pierce, second president of Western Reserve College, a graduate of the college and for several years a well known citizen of Hudson. In 1861 he was appointed surveyor general of Colorado and immediately removed to that territory to enter upon the duties of the office. He early took a prominent position among the influential men of the territory and state and was an important factor in shaping its history. He was in his 71st year at the time of his death. He leaves a widow and one child, now a prominent business man of Denver.

The only Akron paper that wears no collar is the Democrat; it's worth reading.

Justice in Haiti.

Official procedure in Haiti is in certain instances not untouched by humor. A Haitian owed a trader $28. A judgment requiring the Haitian to pay $4 a week into court was given, and the trader was to send a messenger every week to the magistrate for the money. In due time he sent for the first installment and was informed that the Haitian had not paid up, but that he should be thrown into prison for his failure.

Three weeks passed with the same result. One morning the Haitian came to the trader's store. He was, he said, a poor man, much married, a man to whom, therefore, expense came. What good, he asked, would accrue to the trader if he, the poor man, was thrown into prison? Let the trader forgive him his debt and earn thereby untold rewards in a future state.

After some talk the trader gave him a letter of remission, which he went off to present to the magistrate. The affair was settled, but the Haitian was struck by the deal since with which the magistrate dismissed him, and he forthwith returned to the trader and asked him if he had received the $8 he had already paid into court. The trader looked surprised and said he had received nothing.

"Then, since you have remitted the debt, that $8 is mine," said the Haitian.

Accordingly, he went off to the court to present his claim. The magistrate at once committed him to prison. A consul who had heard the story asked the magistrate what the Haitian was sent to prison for.

"For contempt of court," was the reply.

The First Cookbook.

To the Romans belong the honor of having produced the first European cookery book, and, though the authorship is uncertain, it is generally attributed to Caelius Apicius, who lived under Trajan, 114 A. D. Here are two recipes from this ancient collection: "First, for a sauce to be eaten with boiled fowl, put the following ingredients into a mortar: Aniseed, dried mint and lazer root; cover them with vinegar, add dates and pour in liquamen (a distilled liquor made from large fish which were salted and allowed to turn putrid in the sun), oil and a small quantity of mustard seeds. Reduce all to a proper thickness with sweet wine warmed, and then pour this same over your chicken, which should previously be boiled in aniseed water."

The second recipe shows the same queer mixture of ingredients: "Take a wheelbarrow of rose leaves and pound in a mortar; add to it brains of two pigs and two thrushes boiled and mixed with the chopped up yolk of egg, oil, vinegar, pepper and wine. Mix and pour these together and stew them steadily and slowly till the perfume is developed."—Chambers' Journal.

Rat Tail Tendons.

Among the many materials for sewing up wounds are the strong sutures that can be obtained from the tail of the rat. By proper manipulation a bundle of five or six tendons per tail can be obtained and can be used as they are, being easily threaded.

COMMENDED

By Church People

Is Position Taken by Chief Harrison.

Sermon Preached by Rev. J. W. King,

An Endorsed by Members of Congregation.

A Number of Individual Letters of Commendation.

Rev. J. W. King, pastor of the South Main st. church, on Sunday evening preached a sermon on "The Official Safeguard of the City."

In concluding his discourse, Rev. Mr. King commended the position taken by Chief of Police Harrison, relative to enforcing the Sunday laws, and an expression was given by the congregation endorsing the pastor's commendation.

Rev. Mr. King's remarks were placed on paper and signed by almost a hundred members of the congregation. A letter was sent to Chief Harrison notifying him of the action of the congregation, and "commending his moral courage relative to the question of Sunday ball, and his enforcement of the law, even after an apparent attempt had been made by other officials to intimidate the police in the performance of their duty."

Other Commendations.

Chief Harrison has received a number of other letters, commending him for the position that he has taken, among them being the following:

"July 3, 1900.

"H. H. Harrison,

"Chief of Police, Akron.

"Dear Sir:—

"Every law-abiding citizen must have been gratified because of your action last Sunday in suppressing lawlessness.

"It is true, officers of the law are put in office to execute the law as they find it, and yet we know that there is so much pressure from various sources that it must be difficult sometimes for officers to know what they should do. But certainly every order-loving man and woman will commend you and your subordinates for enforcing the law.

"The good people of Akron will stand by you.

"Yours truly,

"JAMES S. FREEMAN,

"Pastor Trinity Reformed Church."

Three classes in the U. B. Sunday school have sent letters to Chief Harrison, expressing their approval of his action.

The following resolution has been adopted by the North Hill M. E. church:

"Be it resolved, That we commend the Chief of Police, of the city of Akron, for his position taken in relation to the annexed territory, and promise him our moral support."

Signed by M. S. KIRK,

Secretary.

W. E. Fitch, pastor.

A gentleman connected with one of the large manufacturing concerns of this city has written to the Chief: "I am one of a number who have pledged money and influence toward the expense of any legal action that may be necessary in order to carry out your program." Also referring to the Board of City Commissioners: "If the members of the Board intend to lend their influence to the disorderly elements, the sooner they are disposed of, the better it will be."

to support life. It is estimated that when a man is at rest he consumes 500 cubic inches of air every minute, an allowance which at the first glance appears large.

It is, however, absurdly small when we consider that at this rate of consumption it would take a man 5 days and 9 1/2 hours to exhaust the air in a small room 15 feet square and 10 feet high.

Any form of exertion, however, greatly increases the consumption of air. Thus if we saunter at two miles an hour we require just twice as much air as when sitting in our armchair, and at four miles an hour nothing less than 2,300 cubic inches will satisfy us.

Taking an average consumption throughout life of one cubic foot of air every two minutes, we reach some very interesting conclusions. Thus an hour's supply of air could be contained in a trunk 5 feet long, 3 feet wide and 2 feet deep.

In a day we should exhaust a small roomful, 10 feet long, 7 feet wide and 10 feet high.

For a year's supply we should require a reservoir or hall 100 feet square and a shade over 20 feet high, and the supply for a long life of 80 years would be contained in a large hall 1,000 feet long, 500 feet wide and 42 feet high.—Chicago Times-Herald.
